Deaconess Harriet Bedell: Did God find ways to use women for His Kingdom before the Episcopal Church recognized that both sexes of humanity could be called to an ordained ministry? You have only to ask any member of ECW to get an immediate answer in the affirmative. So, let me put the question a slightly different way. Were women able to find ways to minister through the Episcopal Church prior to 1976 (when women were first authorized to be ordained) that had they been men there would be no question that the church would have ordained them? Consider the life and ministry of Harriet Bedell (1875-1969) who spent a great portion of her life working in Collier County. Then you be the judge in answering this question.

Book Club: Monday at 12:00 noon. Please join Mother Bobbie as she continues exploring our soul's relationship with God and how best to care for and nurture that relationship using John O'Donohue's book Anam Cara (Soul Friend). Books are available in the office.
